

Copthill School

1-1 Learning Support Assistant 2019

Learning Support Assistant with experience of 1-1 SEN assistance

Essential	Desirable
Experience in classroom environment working with classroom teacher. Experience of working with pupils with SEN	Experience of working with pupils one to one. Training in working with children with specific learning difficulties.
Enthusiasm and energy to engage and assist pupil individually and in groups with his/her work following guidance of teacher and other professionals. Work with pupil both inside the classroom and elsewhere to encourage independence, communication and enable full potential to be reached with minimum supervision.	To be able to assist in after school activities or run a club with an additional extra curricular interest.
Actively promote positive behaviour management in line with the school's ethos and behaviour policy.	To have experience of Team Teach or other similar practices.
Excellent team mentality to work as part of the teaching assistant team. To be flexible in the working environment.
Excellent communication skills for day-day liaison with pupils, parents and staff. Liaise with teachers, SENCO, parents, and outside agencies.
Desire to continue to develop professionally

Initial Contractual Details

Part time. 0.5 timetable - This may be 5 mornings or 4 mornings and 1 pm depending on pupil timetable.

Immediate start available

Pay rate: Full -time £16,907 to £18,462 per annum (52 weeks p.a.), pro-rata . Depending on experience.

Pension: Employee contribution (minimum): 4% Employer Contribution: 3% of basic salary

School lunches and refreshments available free of charge.